

Error Awareness Sheet

Directions: This Error Awareness Sheet will help you discover what your sentence-level errors are and prioritize them. Put a check in the second column for each error marked on your returned paper. Then, from the most frequent errors in the second column, select TWO or THREE that you can begin working on first, and put a check next to them in the third column. Always remember that you need to work on frequent global errors first.

Type of Error	Total Number of Errors	Top-Priority Errors to work on Global Errors (most serious) vt= tense
frag = fragment RO = run on
vf = verb form
ss = sentence structure wo = word order
S. = missing subject
V. = missing verb
CS = Comma Splice
Local Errors (less serious) sv = subject verb agreement pl = singular/plural
ww = wrong word
wf = word form
prep = preposition
art = article
pass = passive
Other Errors
sp = spelling
Cap = capital
p. = punctuation
pron. agr. = pronoun reference agreement		