

ASA Format

The American Sociological Association Style is intended for use by authors preparing manuscripts for publication in ASA journals. This handout is intended for students who are instructed to use ASA style when writing research papers. Consult the American Sociological Association Style Guide for more detailed information (Ref Desk HM 569.A54 2007).

Manuscript Format

- All text (including footnotes & references) must be doubled spaced and in a 12 point type.
- Margins must be at least 1¼ inches on all four sides.
- A separate title page including title of paper, name(s) & institution(s) of authors, word count for the manuscript (including footnotes and references), title footnote (includes names, addresses of authors, acknowledgements, credits, and grants).
- If required, on a separate page provide a short (150-200 word) abstract headed with the title.
- Begin the text of the paper on a separate page headed with the title of the paper.

Citations in Text

- If author's name is in the text, follow it with the publication year in parentheses:
When Chu (1977) studied...
- If the author's name is not in the text, enclose the last name and year in parentheses:
When the study was completed... (Jones 1994).
- If the page number is to be included, it follows the year of publication after a colon, with no space between the colon and the page number:
...as reported by Chavez (1966:16).
- For three authors, give all last names in the first citation in the text. Afterwards use the first name and "et al." For more than three names, use the first author's last name plus "et al." Examples as follow:
Three authors, first in-text citation = (Smith, Garcia and Lee 1954)
Three authors, later in-text citations = (Smith et al. 1954)
More than three authors = (Snow et al. 1999)
- Quotations in the text must begin and end with quotation marks. The citation follows the end-quote mark and precedes the period, as follows:
"In the late 1990s, reported data shows that technologically oriented jobs paid better" (Hildenbrand 1999:47).

Footnotes & Endnotes

- Try to avoid footnotes, but if necessary, use footnotes to cite material of limited availability or to add information presented in a table.
- Footnotes should be numbered consecutively throughout the essay with superscript Arabic numerals and included at the bottom of the manuscript page or in a separate section headed "Endnotes."

Reference List

- References follow the text and endnotes in a separate section headed "References."
- All references cited in the text must be listed and vice-versa.
- Remember: Like all other parts of the manuscript, references should be double-spaced.
- List references in alphabetical order by author's last names.
- Use hanging indention (see examples below).
- Invert the author's name (type it last name first). If there are two or more authors, invert only the first author's name.
- Arrange multiple items by the same author in order by year of publication, earliest year first.
- Use six hyphens and a period (-----.) in place of the name(s) for repeated authorship.
- Distinguish works by the same author in the same year by adding letters (e.g. 1993a, 1993b, 1993c).
- Use italics for book and periodical titles (underline if italics are not available).
- If no date is available use "N.d." in place of the date.
- Include both city and state for place of publication (except for New York) using U.S. Postal Code abbreviations. For foreign cities provide the name of the country.
